FOREWORD

Shall we cry "Oh, stay, thou art so fair," to our Senior Year? No, if we try to keep it longer than our allotted time, it will be less lovely.

It has come, as we knew it would; for a brief moment it surrounded us with its lustre, more than we thought it could; now it passes on, as we know it must.

And now, how can we capture for the years to come some part of the bright spirit of youthful exuberance and endeavor which characterized that last year? Trying for the best French translation,---the most impressive class meeting oratory---the best retort to any quip thrown out by a class-mate---all ends in themselves and yet, preparation for greater efforts to come.

All our lives we shall be surrounded by reminders: an old copy of the Blarion,--that treasured English Exam with the faded "A"--our school shield, linking us to the past as we forge our ties with the future, our motto, which we shall use in the future as we have used it in the past, with varying degrees of success, for "a man's reach should exceed his grasp, or what's a Heaven for?"

But for remembering the days when we were young enough to really enjoy ourselves, yet mature enough to appreciate our enjoyment, this yearbook will be our greatest aid.

Since this is the last contribution we shall make to James Blair as its students, we hope that it is worthy of the high standards and ideals of our alma mater.

DEDICATION

RAYMOND F. FREED

Mr. Freed has ever been more than a teacher to us. He has given freely of himself, his time, and his wisdom in everything we asked and often he has seen and assisted us in ways that we have not realized or acknowledged.

Through the years he has been our friend in friendship's fullest meaning. He has stood by us, encouraging us when we needed it, praising us when our efforts merited it, and understanding us when we sorely tried his patience by our mistakes. He has been our counselor and our guide in more ways than we can recognize. His tact and level-headed good sense have eased us through many situations which might otherwise have been troublesome. For this we are supremely grateful.

From Mr. Freed we have learned things which are not to be found between the covers of books, and by his laudable example we have profited. Of these greatest gifts a teacher can give his pupils, we have been honored recipients.

Mr. Freed has and will always have our respect, our heartfelt admiration, and our enduring and humble thanks for all he has meant to and done for us.

Therefore, it is with pride and great pleasure that we, the Class of 1958, dedicate this edition of "The Bee Hive" to Raymond Freed.

LAST WILL

I, CARLTON ABBOTT, do leave the distinction of Yorktown, its glory, class and supremacy, to Gale Abbott.

I, LARRY ALLGOOD, do leave my ability to drive all week on 50¢ worth of gas to Brantley Henderson.

I, FRED ARMSTRONG, better known as "Le Gazelle Vert", do leave my quiet manner to Brantley Henderson, and my ability to burn the candle at both ends without getting caught to Joni Wimmer.

I, DON BECK, do leave my poor scholastic ability to Bob Kane.

I, WARREN BILLINGS, do leave to Esther Marshall a list of Farabee's excuses and all the problems of our beloved yearbook. To the boys of the upstairs laboratory my fond memories of Berlin.

I, JOANIE BOYER, do leave to Johnny Holland an extra "diploma" and don't forget what you're after!

I, JERRY BRACEY, do leave my "Big Mistake" to David McBride.

I, SUSAN BROWN, do leave my majorette uniform plus a bottle of salve for aching muscles to Alice White.

I, CAROLYN COX, do leave a tape recording of my voice to Bill Bowry, that he may listen to it every day, lest he forget.

I, GWEN DOWDELL, do leave my excess weight to John Baganakis and my bottle of "Light and Bright" to June Whitacre for future blonding purposes.

I, EMILY DRAKE, do leave my position on the cheering squad to Linda Neese, and my love of dancing and having fun to Pat Campbell.

I, JUDY EDKINS, do leave to Frances Kempton my easy ability to get along with Miss Saunders. Caution: Use with discretion!

I, THOMAS FARINHOLT, do leave my position of guarding Joan Meadows for my brother to Lucy Crosland,

I, BETTIE MAE GARRETT, do leave to Carol Waltrip my majorette position.

I, GEORGE GREENE, do leave my school bus #20 and my ability to get to school on time to Butch Owens.

I, BARBARA HARMON, do leave Nancy MacDonald all her riches, that is, her last nickel.

I, ANTTI HAVOLA, do leave my 50 yard line seat at all football games to Billy Thompson.

I, BARBRO HERNROTH, do leave to George Lunger, my ability in understanding Swedish.

I, CAROL ANN HINKSON, do leave my French II notebook to Beth O'Neal, my adoration of "bopping" to Margaret Holland and will my many and varied interests on the football team to the safe-keeping of Beth O'Neal, also!

I, MARGARET HITCHENS, do leave my love for Gloucester and '57 "Chevies" to Beth O'Neal.

I, DOTTIE HOFMEYER, do leave to Fran Caldwell, my long eyelashes she admires so longingly, and my job at Nottingham Pharmacy.

I, JANICE HOGG, do leave my art of wearing 22" waist bermuda shorts to John Baganakis.

I, ADELAIDE HUDSON, do leave Jean Loomis all of my boy friends.

I, CAROLYN HUTCHENS, being of sound (?) mind and memory do leave my dog-eared copy of the "Ars Amortia" to Barry Forester and my "Palmists Guide" to Joan Lee in the hopes that her lines pan out like they are supposed to.

I, BETTY JONES, do leave to Hartwell Euband some advice--"Never put a Ford against a Pontiac".

I, ROBERT KEENE, do leave my ability to get sick over night to any poor under classman that can put it to his best advantage.

I, SHEPHERD LEWIS, do leave my perfect vision to Peter Haak, my love for French to the Junior Class and my diploma (unless I die first) to all my enemies who were glad to see me leave.

I, JANE MARSDEN, do leave conjugations of all French verbs to Lucy Crosland, who will need them if she manages to pass French I.

I, JEANETTE MARTIN, do leave my well known voice and title of "Squeaky" to Margaret Holland.

I, BETSEY McCULLY, do leave Nancy MacDonald all the "little" Sigma Nu boys, but not the "Dekes", and to Esther Marshall, Herb, (if she can get him!) Good Luck!!!

I, CHUCK MILLER, do leave all of my extraordinary musical talents, my position of band manager, head librarian, and my All-State Band position to Randy Carter; as for my solo clarinet, I leave it open because no one can fulfill its "requirements".

AND TESTAMENT

I, ANNE MINOR, do leave my duck tail hair cut to Beth O'Neal.

I, MARY ANNE MORECOCK, do leave to Nancy MacDonald, all of my debts, because of her promptness in paying hers.

I, BILL MYERS, do leave my high and mighty Senior Class type cranial contents (whatever they are) to the Juniors in Miss Browning's biology class to dissect, in order to discover just what makes the superior mind of a typical Senior tick.

I, DAVE NOAKE, now being a member of the Holy Order of Football Gazelles--alumni branch--do leave my ability as a center to Robert Wellman and wish him many happy tea parties with the backfield. "All the way, Sheldon!"

I, DOROTHY NOBLES, do leave to Pat Campbell my "love, knowledge, and skill" in shorthand.

I, KEITH NUNN, do leave one slightly used spare tire to Brantley Henderson.

I, JIM PEACH, do leave my great ability to kick extra points and punt, to the junior with the biggest and strongest toe.

I, PAT PENCE, do leave my French notebook to Richard Cottingham and my corny jokes to Paula Batchelder.

I, SUZANNE PORTER, do leave my "second-sight" to Nancy MacDonald and my love of James Blair to Bob Wellman.

I, JOHN RANKIN, do wish "to be placed on the eleventh stair of my gallows," "Watch your Step!"

I, FAYE RIPLEY, do leave to Frances Kempton my basketball so she can take up the game.

I, WILLIAM ROBERTS, "Le Gazelle Vert," do leave my pass catching ability to June Whitacre, who I hope won't need it; and my nickname, "Gripe", a family heirloom handed down from Lanehart, to Brantley Henderson in the hope that he will continue the glorious tradition.

I, BLAKE ROBERTSON, do leave my "ax" donated by preceeding senior Linda Veatch, to Linda Neese for "axing" to the highest degree!

I, PAT ROGERS, do leave to Charles Barnes my 22" waist.

I, PATSY ROLES, do leave to Joyce Harrison the will to graduate.

I, WILLYE MAE ROWE, do leave my excess height to Peter Haak and my exceptional ability to handle yearbook money to Frank Osborne.

I, GLORIA RUNION, do leave all the cigarette butts, trash, etc., that have been left in my car to Nancy MacDonald and "Monk" Matthews.

I, CECIL SMART, do leave one pair of track shoes to George Lunger.

I, ED SMITH, do leave to Brantley Henderson a book on how to steal Christmas trees.

I, CHARLOTTE ST. CLAIR, do leave my ability to primp on the school bus in the morning to Frances Kempton.

I, BILL SUISER, do leave my "fat, healthy 133 pounds" to Charlie Barnes.

I, LLOYD SULLENBERGER do leave my home, Sulensteine; Hornrims; and facial characteristics to Joni Wimmer so she can live on 13¢ a week.

I, BARBARA TAYLOR, do leave my ability to talk in bookkeeping and not get caught to Joan Duffy.

I, SUSAN TINSLEY, do leave my reputation as a dumb blonde to Joni Wimmer.

I, ALFRED TROUTMAN, do leave to Lucy Crosland one pair of sheep shears and to Beth O'Neal one well used French II book.

I, EDITH WALTRIP, leave my great height to Joan Duffy.

I, LINDA WROTEN, being of sound mind and body do leave to Carol Lanehart my memories of one pajama party.

Signed and sealed by.

Situated mid-way between the Past and Present, James Blair High School students receive the advantages of both. In restored Williamsburg, Jamestown, and Yorktown, there are evidences that the Past is very much alive--quite frisky, in fact. History walks about in tricornered hats and brass-buckled shoes and farthingales, or is seen in Elizabethan styles. The roar of cannon fire is more than an echo of Cornwallis's surrender at Yorktown... Thus, James Blair students become steeped in the beginnings of America, and their awareness of what America means, is vastly increased.

Though young, this the third year of operation, James Blair offers its students a variety of courses and extra-curricular activities which provide both vital and challenging insights into the workings of their future careers, and which arouse interest in various fields.

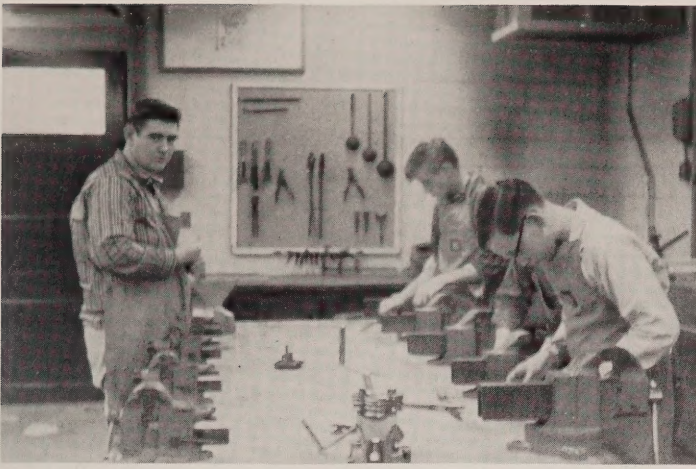

VOCATIONAL OFFICE TRAINING

VOCATIONAL OFFICE TRAINING

CLASSES IN ACTION

Through shop classes Blair students learn woodworking, metalworking, and many other arts and skills for practical use as well as professional use.

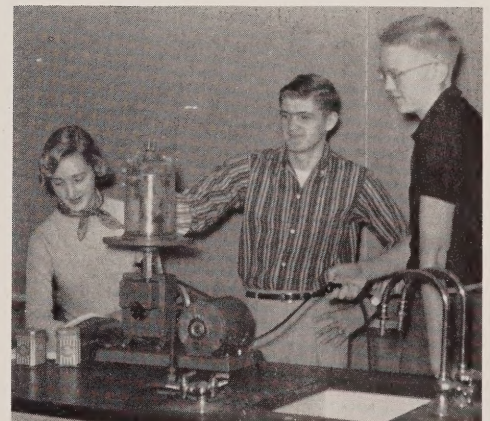

SHOP

PHYSICS

Physics, alternated with chemistry, gives students ample opportunity to study advanced sciences and to apply their knowledge to experiments.

BOYS' GYM

The boys' gym classes gives an excellent background and beginning to future sports participants. It also trains students in sportsmanship and to participate well in games.

CLASSES

Students learn through Latin I & II the basic methods in studying a foreign language. Latin is offered as an elective to ninth and tenth graders.

TYPING

Typing is one of the most useful subjects offered. In typing students learn to do business typing as well as personal typing.

LANGUAGE ARTS

FRENCH

French is the only living language taught at Blair. After Latin, French is offered to all juniors as an elective. Students do many different things such as putting on plays, singing, Etc.

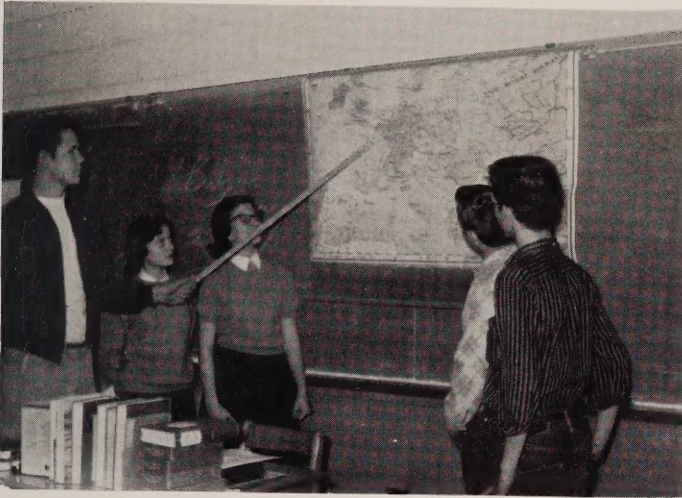

LANGUAGE ARTS

The language arts classes, required for four years in high school, require reading in almost everything from the Canterbury Tales to Macbeth.

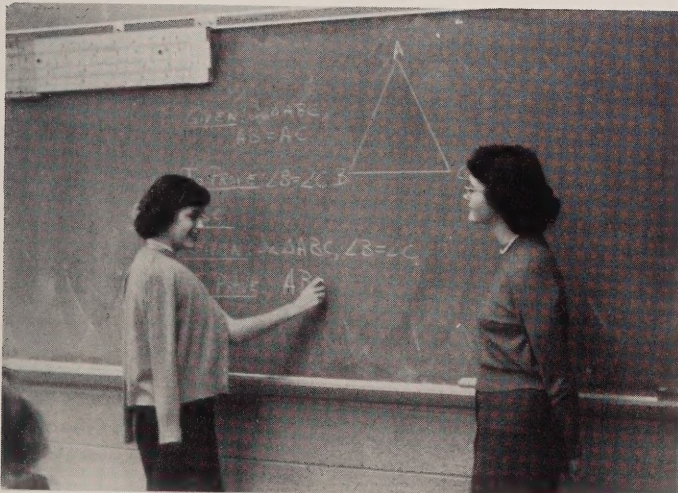

IN ACTION

HISTORY CLASS

All James Blair students take world history which gives excellent preparation for U. S. History & Government which are required for juniors and seniors.

GEOMETRY CLASSES

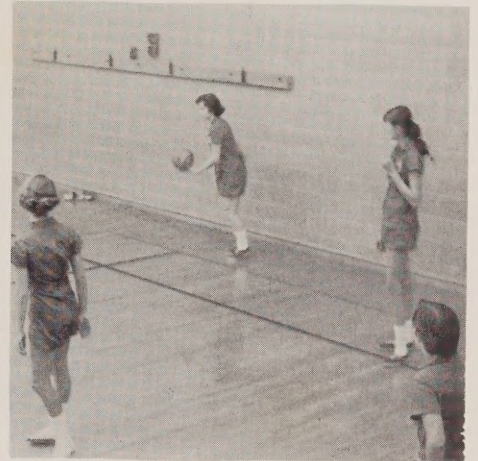

Geometry is the first step to advanced mathematics after elementary algebra. Through Geometry the figures are visualized by making models such as the one shown.

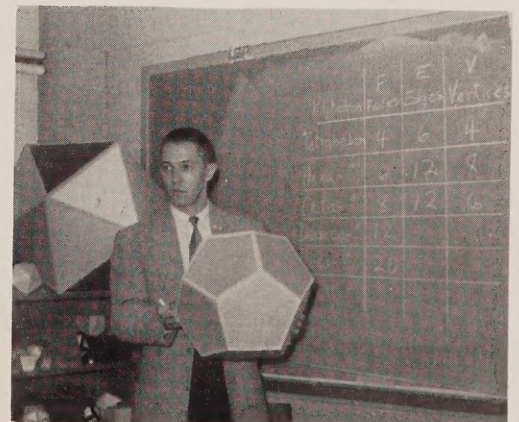

PHYSICS CLASS

Physics and Chemistry alternate in this curriculum. These two advanced sciences are becoming increasingly popular.

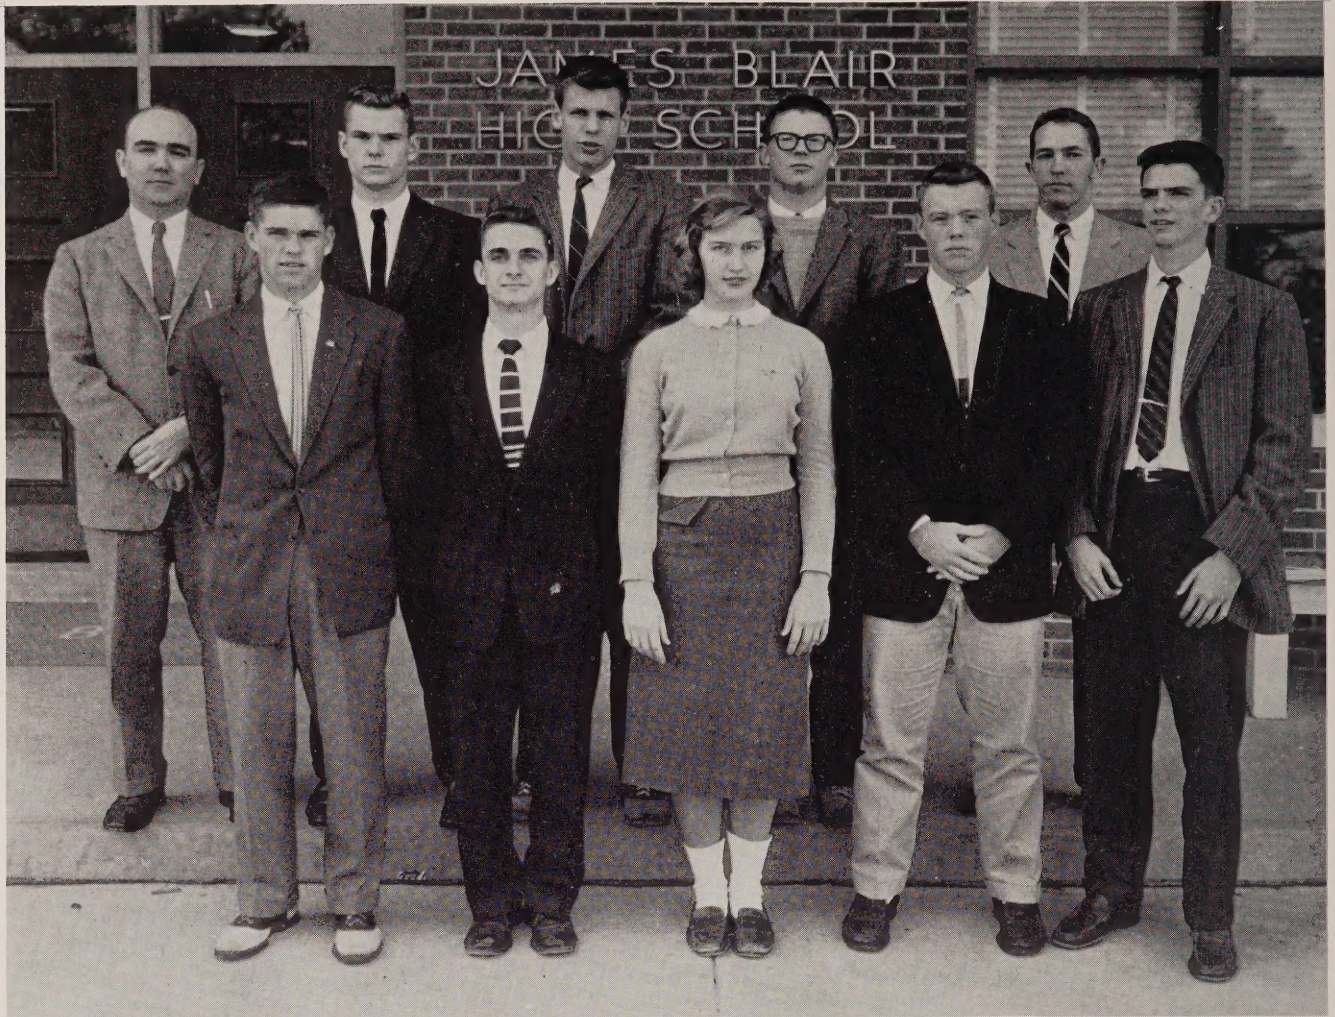

GIRLS GYM CLASS

Intramural sports often grow out of the interest in physical Education.

CODE OF ETHICS COUNCIL

The Code of Ethics and later the Code of Ethics Council were conceived by the Student Councils in the past several years. Two years ago the student body approved the proposed plan. Early this year, the plan for a Code of Ethics Council was presented, discussed, and voted upon. It provided for a council of nine members, one of which would be the president of the S.C.A. This group would choose two faculty advisors. The purpose of the Code of Ethics Council is to strengthen the Code of Ethics, Interpret the Code, and try and punish offenders. Fred Armstrong was elected chairman and June Whitacre was chosen recorder of the group. Mr. Charles Lauck and Mr. Raymond Freed were selected faculty advisors.

Barbro Hernroth and Warren Billings

The James Blair Senior Class of 1958 feels very fortunate in having been able to participate in the American Field Service program. It has had an opportunity to send one of its class members to Europe and to receive an exchange student in return.

Warren Billings was selected by this service as a participant in its program because of his leadership, scholastic, and personal qualities. He is one of the many students chosen from all over the United States to participate in international friendship.

While living for two months in Berlin, Warren was entertained frequently by German officials. He became familiar with both East and West Berlin.

At the same time Warren was traveling home on the Arosa Kulm, Miss Barbro Hernroth of Goteborg, Sweden, was arriving in the United States aboard the Arosa Sky. She made her home with Jane Marsden and her family during her year here. We at James Blair found Barbro very attractive with a delightful and gay personality.

These are the two reasons the Senior Class of 1958 feels fortunate. It hopes that in a small way, it has been able to further friendship and amity between the United States and other peoples of the world.

FOOTBALL SEASON 1957

This years' football team was a surprise to many people. It turned out to be much better than it was predicted. The team started the season with a hard fought victory over Franklin. The next game was with powerful Great Bridge, who won the district championship. Blair lost this game 40-6. Next game on tap for Blair was Gloucester. In this game Blair fought hard to come from behind for a 14-12 victory. Blair traveled to Virginia Beach for their next game with the previous district champions. The tough line and hard-running backs were too much for the Seahawks as they fell to Blair 18-0. At the annual Homecoming game, Blair took revenge on Smithfield with an impressive 27-7 victory. This was the first time Blair had beaten Smithfield since 1954. Blair met arch-rival York for their next game which marked the first time Blair played under their own lights. The hard fought battle ended with a 13-13 tie which showed much improvement over last year's 32-7 defeat. After the York game Blair had a tough three week lay-off because of cancelations due to the flue epidemic. A long lay-off like this is not good for any team, but Blair bounced back with a 14-6 victory over Poquoson. This was undoubtedly the hardest fought battle of the season. The next two games were sad ones for the Blair eleven, losing to Prince George 9-7, and to Varina 19-6. James Blair ended the season with a 5-3-1 record, which isn't bad in anybody's book.
